Public Housing Revitalization: Building Communities Together

IForums 2015

Presented by the PARTNERSHIP FOR STRONG COMMUNITIES

What opportunities exist as the state undertakes the revitalization of its public housing?

With a 10-Year Capital Plan now available, public housing authorities are faced with new funding, development and management challenges. At the same time, new legislation provides public housing residents a prominent seat at the table in the redevelopment process.

Join us as two panels discuss how housing authorities, public housing residents, technical assistance providers and funding agencies are using the redevelopment process as an opportunity to sustain a valuable resource while building inclusive and sustainable communities.

Featuring

State agency officials & technical assistance providers:

Betsy Crum: CT Housing Coalition
Daisy Franklin, Publicly-Assisted Housing Resident Network
