

Partnership for Strong Communities presents

Housing Strategies for Wealth-Building in Communities of Color

Tuesday, July 13, 2021, 10:00-11:30am via Zoom

Register Here: <https://july2021iforum.eventbrite.com>

This free virtual event will explore barriers to homeownership for communities of color in Connecticut and examine ways to promote equity and opportunity through expanding access to homeownership. Learn from state and national policy experts as they discuss current programs available to prospective homebuyers throughout the state, with an emphasis on policy considerations that may result in wealth-building and improved outcomes for communities of color.

Featuring Presentations By:

Jenny Schuetz

Senior Fellow, Metropolitan Policy Program,
Future of the Middle Class Initiative,
Brookings Institution

Thalia Giraldo

Associate Director of Innovation Initiatives,
Trinity College, and Connecticut-based
housing researcher

Panel Discussion Including:

Julian Pierce (moderator)

Manager, Economic Opportunity Program,
Fairfield County's Community Foundation

Karraine Moody

Chief Executive Officer, Hartford Area Habitat for Humanity

Chris Troxell

Senior Vice President - General Auditor,
Liberty Bank

Jenny Schuetz

Senior Fellow, Metropolitan Policy Program,
Future of the Middle Class Initiative,
Brookings Institution

Thalia Giraldo

Associate Director of Innovation Initiatives,
Trinity College, and Connecticut-based
housing researcher

IForums 2021

Ideas. Inspiration. Innovation.

Hosted by PARTNERSHIP FOR STRONG COMMUNITIES

The Partnership's IForum Series is dedicated to engaging the public in the discussion of important housing issues on the local, state, and national levels through free conferences, webinars, and other educational events.

Presenting Sponsor for the July 2021 IForum: Liberty Bank

LIBERTY
BANK

Produced with the support of our IForum Series Sponsors:

Register now for the July 2021 IForum!

<https://july2021iforum.eventbrite.com>